

Choose Your Own Adventure FRQ Exam Review

The exam is next week--AHHHHHHHHHHH!!!! Fear not, my friends. We have compiled some of the best resources from people who literally write textbooks and resources for AP English teachers. You'll be okay, I promise.

Since many of you are taking other AP exams this week, I wanted to plan something flexible so you can do it on your own and choose the topics that you feel you need to review most. All of these videos relate to the essays. I would encourage you to do additional multiple choice practice through AP Classroom and use the score report to understand which answers are most correct.

Your Task:

1. You are required to watch at least 1 video each day that totals at least 8 minutes of video content (i.e. if it's a really short video, choose a second video to watch).
2. For each video, you will complete the notes organizer (attached individually in Classroom) to show me that you actually watched it. Be as specific as possible to truly prove you watched it. Vague responses will earn fewer points. (see the sample response tab on the left here for an example of the level of detail).
